Public Facing Advocacy Writing

KY Voices: Senate panel must not withhold truth about torture by Rev. Nancy J. Kemper, Lexington Herald Leader, August 25, 2013.

The short attention span of the American citizenry leads to many important matters getting swept under the national rug. Things that are not dealt with, confronted, debated and clarified become dangerous lumps that will trip up the nation and could lead to more serious difficulties. Some issues are so critical and of such great moral import that we ignore them at our peril.

Torture, and its use by various national agencies, offends the moral sensibilities of all Americans...
