The Fight of Our Lives

On April 20, 2017 justice reform leaders and supporters joined the Vera Institute of Justice for Veras 11th Annual Gala, Reimagine Justice.

Honorees discussed approaches to criminal justice reform and the future of the movement in a very different federal climate. Samuel David Flores Murillo, a client of Veras recently expanded New York Immigrant Family Unity Project (NYIFUP), gave a moving speech about the need for increased support for immigrant families and communities.

Held at Cipriani 25 Broadway, the event honored:

Universal Representation for Detained Immigrants Facing Deportation in Upstate New York

In recent years, threats of arrest and detention of immigrants have soared, families have been systematically separated, and noncitizens are more vulnerable than ever to deportation. Yet immigrants facing deportation do not have the right to a public defender if they cannot afford a lawyer. The New York Immigrant Family Unity Project (NYIFUP) is ...

Eradicating a Stain on Our City

A stain on human dignity and decency.- Melissa Mark-Viverito, Speaker, NYC Council A mass incarceration model that stains everything and everyone it touches. - Honorable Jonathan Lippman, Former New York State Chief Judge and Of Counsel, Latham & Watkins LLP At a time when the streets of New York City are as safe as theyve ever been ...

Lifting a nearly 30-year ban on Pell Grants for people who are incarcerated, Congress passed the FAFSA Simplification Act, which restores their Pell Grant eligibility starting in 2023, allowing them to affordably pursue postsecondary education in prison. The Second Chance Pell (SCP) Experiment has highlighted the success of prison education program ...
