Public Facing Advocacy Writing

Restore Justice receives hundreds of letters from individuals incarcerated in Illinois prisons who wish to know more about what is going on in the Illinois legislature in general and, in particular, if there is any current or pending legislation that might affect their case or their sentence. We do our best to respond to these letters both individually and, more comprehensively, by sending out a regular newsletter to all of our friends inside. The newsletter addresses frequently asked questions and shares information about our work and how they and their free-world allies can join the cause of ending extreme sentences in Illinois.

In early February, we sent out our first inmate letter of 2018 to 216 individuals in prisons across the state. You can check out what we had to say below.
