On November 30th, IJPC is joining more than 2,000 cities around the world in Cities for Life/Cities Against the Death Penalty, a campaign of the Community of Sant'Egidio, located in Rome, to raise awareness about the injustice that is capital punishment. Please attend our interfaith service to learn what various faiths say about the death penalty and to call for an end to capital punishment through song and reflection.

IJPC's non-profit status means that it relies on your contributions to provide essential programming and work for justice. Donate today and see your dollars make a difference. Donations are tax deductible.

The Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center educates and advocates for peace, challenges unjust local, national and global systems, and promotes the creation of a nonviolent society. IJPC is supported by faith-based organizations and individuals who work together to educate around justice issues, take collaborative action and do public witness. We address local, national and international concerns focusing on the death penalty, immigration, human trafficking and peace and nonviolence.
