

Physicians for Human Rights

Torture, Former Combatants, Political Prisoners, Terror Suspects, & Terrorists

<https://phr.org/our-work/resources/guantnamo-10-years-on-and-the-future-of-indefinite-detention/>

Public Facing Advocacy Writing

on January 13, 2012

Update: See the photo slideshow below from PHR's participation in the Close Guantanamo protest in Washington DC on January 11.*

Today, January 11, 2012, marks the tenth year of existence of the detention center at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Ten years ago, twenty men arrived there and were held in Camp X-Ray, a temporary camp of open-air 6x8 cells made of chain link fence. This first group was considered so dangerous they were described by then-Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Richard Myers, as being willing to "gnaw hydraulic lines

Read more from PHR's Kristine Huskey in her guest post on IntLawGrrls.

Enter a valid email address

Invalid email address

Success!

Physicians for Human Rights 2022