Campaign and Advocacy

Every year thousands of supporters like you make contributions to and take action for CVT. We are grateful for your help. Every day, you play a valuable role in rebuilding the lives of torture survivors and working for a world without torture.

Donations in any amount by individuals are extremely important to CVT in order to continue our healing and policy advocacy work. Your contributions form a vital bridge between what it costs to heal and advocate for survivors of torture and the funds CVT is able to raise in grants and contracts.

Many of the torture survivors we serve are applying for political asylum, so they do not qualify for any public services. Simple gifts of necessary items support men, women and families as they struggle to rebuild their lives in a new country. View list of necessary items.
