On Tuesday, October 12th, people of faith across the city will join together in prayer to call for an end to the death penalty. The Cincinnati Interfaith Vigil to End the Death Penalty will be held outside, near Bellarmine Chapel at Xavier University, in the North Yard Stage. Parking is available in the Cintas Lot. Please wear a mask.

The event is supported by the Archdiocese of Cincinnati's Offices of Catholic Social Action and Respect Life, Bellarmine Chapel, the Dorothy Day Center for Faith and Justice at Xavier University, and the Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center.

If you represent a faith community that would like to participate in this event, we welcome you to join us! Please reach out to Bekky Baker at bekky@IJPCcincinnati.org or 513.864.5783.

IJPC's non-profit status means that it relies on your contributions to provide essential programming and work for justice. Donate today and see your dollars make a difference. Donations are tax deductible.

The Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center educates and advocates for peace, challenges unjust local, national and global systems, and promotes the creation of a nonviolent society. IJPC is supported by faith-based organizations and individuals who work together to educate around justice issues, take collaborative action and do public witness. We address local, national and international concerns focusing on the death penalty, immigration, human trafficking and peace and nonviolence.
