Campaign and Advocacy

Death Penalty Abolition Week for Ohio Faith Communities begins October 8th and ends October 17th. Check out our map to see who is taking action this week to call for an end to Ohio's death penalty. To learn more, register and add your name to the map click here.

Throughout the week faith communities will be posting yard signs, calling their legislators, hosting prayer services, hosting educational events and more! Join us. Let your leaders know that it is time to end the arbitrary, racist and broken death penalty system.

The Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center educates and advocates for peace, challenges unjust local, national and global systems, and promotes the creation of a nonviolent society. IJPC is supported by faith-based organizations and individuals who work together to educate around justice issues, take collaborative action and do public witness. We address local, national and international concerns focusing on the death penalty, immigration, human trafficking and peace and nonviolence.
