Policy Issue Resources

Two judges have now struck down Donald Trump's second attempt at banning Muslims from a handful of countries to enter the United States. A federal judge in Hawaii issued a temporary restraining order against the ban. The ruling, by judge Derrick Watson was made on a case brought by the state of Hawaii against the federal government. A second judge in Maryland then blocked the core part of the ban from going into effect as well. CCR Legal Director Baher Azmy discusses the ban on Rising Up With Sonali.
