I lost my father two years ago to a brutal and senseless murder. The man who took his life, Thomas Knuff, was recently sentenced to death. Knuff took my dad from me and robbed the two of us of invaluable time together. Its impossible to describe the depths of my pain or how to cope with whats happened to me, but I know that Knuffs death sentence will not provide healing to me. As someone with a very close connection to the death penalty, I appreciate Ohio House Speaker Larry Householders recentcommentsabout his waning support of the death penalty.
