

Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center

Discrimination, Detention, and Deportation: Immigration & Refugees

<https://ijpccincinnati.org/programs/immigration/know-your-rights/>

Policy Issue Resources

All people in the United States have rights, even undocumented immigrants.

It is important to know your rights in case ICE stops you on the street, comes to your place of work, or knocks on your door at home. To learn how to exercise those rights and read why the immigration system isn't working for most people, take a look at the resources and videos below.

Sign up for issue-specific emails and important updates from IJPC!

IJPC's non-profit status means that it relies on your contributions to provide essential programming and work for justice. Donate today and see your dollars make a difference. Donations are tax deductible.

The Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center educates and advocates for peace, challenges unjust local, national and global systems, and promotes the creation of a nonviolent society. IJPC is supported by faith-based organizations and individuals who work together to educate around justice issues, take collaborative action and do public witness. We address local, national and international concerns focusing on the death penalty, immigration, human trafficking and peace and nonviolence.