Campaign and Advocacy

We save our lengthy posts for this site. If you want quicker, more frequent updates about our actions, along with photos and videos, please head over to our Facebook or Twitter pages.

Dear Friends and supporters

Witness Against Torture formed in 2005 when 25 Americans went to Guantanamo Bay and attempted to visit the detention facility. Once we returned from that journey, we began to organize more broadly to shut down Guantanamo, working with interfaith, human rights and activist organizations.

As we approach our ten year anniversary, we are still here at the forefront of the struggle to close Guantanamo and end torture everywhere. Our most recent celebration was Shaker Aamers release to his family and home in the UK. He sent his supporters a message included below please read it! Its for you too. You helped get him home.

And the work continues. There are 112 men left indefinitely detained at Guantanamo Bay Prison. They need to be released, not moved to a new prison. There is also a man Younous Chekkouri, who was released from Guantanamo in September only to be detained by his own government in Morocco. His wife wrote a heartwrenching appeal here and our partners at Reprieve are encouraging folks to write to John Kerry here.

President Obamas last year in office is approaching and we have decided to put together a video, explaining our mission and work, and launch a fundraiser to raise $8,000 by December 15. We need your help to make this effort successful.

Please share the fundraiser page and Witness Against Tortures mission with your family and friends via email, facebook, twitter and all other forms of communication.

With your support, we will carry on in our activities until torture is decisively ended, its victims are fully acknowledged, Guantanamo and similar facilities are closed, and those who ordered and committed torture are held to account

A Photo and a Message from Shaker Aamer to His Supporters:

Shaker Aamer writes:

Hi Joanne and Andy,

Please send this message below to all of those who campaigned with We Stand With Shaker, the Save Shaker Aamer Campaign, those who fasted for me, MPs, and everyone else you know who has fought for my release.

I cant tell you how much I want to speak to all of you and stand with all of you, carrying on the struggle for justice for everybody who has been oppressed and needs our help. If there is one thing we can do to save the whole world it is to fight for justice. We will work hard together to close Guantanamo and every unlawful facility run by any government worldwide. Justice has no colour or religion or race.

I promise all of you good people those whose names I know, and those whose names I do not know that my heart and my spirit feel your thoughts of justice. I care for you all.

Yours sincerely,

Shaker Aamer ISN 239
