June 10, 2014, Washington, DC A federal appeals court today dismissed a civil lawsuit brought by six men formerly held at Guantanamo who were wrongly detained and abused while at the prison. The suit, one of the last remaining Guantanamo damages suits, was brought against former Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld and other military officials for the torture, religious abuse and other mistreatment of plaintiffs.

The Center for Constitutional Rights works with communities under threat to fight for justice and liberation through litigation, advocacy, and strategic communications. Since 1966, the Center for Constitutional Rights has taken on oppressive systems of power, including structural racism, gender oppression, economic inequity, and governmental overreach.
