Policy Issue Resources

The use of solitary confinement on children, of any duration, constitutes cruel, inhumane, and degrading treatment and/or punishment under human rights law.

Human rights observers have urged the U.S. to adopt policies that regulate the limited use of isolation or segregation for youth and eliminate the use of solitary confinement for children.

Human Rights for Kids is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion and protection of human rights for children. Our team focuses on advancing critical issues through research and education, coalition building, policy advocacy, and strategic litigation.
