This report from the Immigration Legal Resource Center provides an analysis of California's Proposition 64, or The Adult Use of Marijuana Act, and its potential impact on immigrants with marijuana offenses. The report finds that Prop. 64 presents a timely and important opportunity to address one devastating effect of the failed "War on Drugs." By legalizing marijuana for adults 21 and older, Prop. 64 will prevent the destruction of thousands of California families and will prevent loved ones from being detained or deported for minor marijuana offenses.
