Campaign and Advocacy

All Events

Join us as SueZann Bosler shares her story and example of the healing power of forgiveness. SueZann witnessed her father, Rev. Billy Bosler be stabbed to death in their parsonage before she herself was stabbed and left for dead. Her faith and her father taught forgiveness, and she took that to heart advocating that her attacker not receive the death penalty.

Bring a friend to share in a powerful presentation about love, healing, forgiveness and justice, as well as an update on the legal system and the death penalty in Ohio.

Why? The next governor takes office with an execution less than 30 days into his term, and 23 more executions already scheduled into 2023. Join us to learn more. Our goal is to stop executions while advocating for better services for all Ohio homicide survivors rather than the false hopes offered by the promise of an unlikely execution at some point decades in the future.

Tuesday October 30th

6:30pm to 8:00pm

IJPC's non-profit status means that it relies on your contributions to provide essential programming and work for justice. Donate today and see your dollars make a difference. Donations are tax deductible.

The Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center educates and advocates for peace, challenges unjust local, national and global systems, and promotes the creation of a nonviolent society. IJPC is supported by faith-based organizations and individuals who work together to educate around justice issues, take collaborative action and do public witness. We address local, national and international concerns focusing on the death penalty, immigration, human trafficking and peace and nonviolence.
