IJPC is partnering with the Social Action Office of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati to light up the cathedral downtown in conjunction with Cities for Life. There will be an ecumenical service that night as we come together across faith traditions to raise our voices against the death penalty.

The Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center educates and advocates for peace, challenges unjust local, national and global systems, and promotes the creation of a nonviolent society. IJPC is supported by faith-based organizations and individuals who work together to educate around justice issues, take collaborative action and do public witness. We address local, national and international concerns focusing on the death penalty, immigration, human trafficking and peace and nonviolence.
