Public Facing Advocacy Writing

President Donald Trump is continuing his assault on basic humanitarian protections at the U.S.-Mexico border. In recent days, the president has sent thousands of troops to the border to string miles and miles of barbed wire, overseen U.S. Customs and Border Protections decision to close ports of entry, and ratified CBPs plan to evict 450 asylum-seekers marooned on bridges connecting El Paso, Texas, and Ciudad Jurez, Mexico. Trumps latest tactic might be his most inimical: He ordered an interim final rule to deny asylum to anyone who has crossed in between ports of entry along the Southern border. While this order has already been blocked by the courts for the time being, this latest tactic fits right in line with the administrations larger goal of criminalizing migration. ...
