Campaign and Advocacy

After 51 years since President Nixon declared the disastrous war on drugs, most Americans agree it's been a failure. We're making historic headway to end it including the first-ever drug decriminalization bill introduced in Congress just a year ago.

The groundbreaking Drug Policy Reform Act (DPRA) will help dismantle the federal drug war through decriminalizing drugs and investing in health-based alternatives.

Drug criminalization is driving the overdose crisis and has made drug possession the most arrested offense in the country ruining countless lives and preventing us from helping people by treating drug use as the health issue it is. Dont let the drug war continue for another half a century: urge Congress to take the first step by supporting the DPRA to decriminalize drugs nationwide.

Sincerely,
