OP-EDS IN ALL 50 STATES CALL FOR RELEASE OF THE REPORT

NRCAT thanks over 80 religious leaders who participated in our 50 state op-ed project, calling on the Senate Intelligence Committee to make the torture report public.

THE TORTURE REPORT

In the Hollywood film The Report, Senate staffer Dan Jones leads an investigation into the CIA's torture program. As he uncovers the truth that torture was not only brutal and immoral, but also ineffective the CIA works to prevent his findings from ever being made public. The Report is political drama about the CIA torture program and the attempt to cover up both the program and its failures. Patriotic in the best sense of the word, it shows how a small number of morally committed people can uncover the truth and achieve change even when opposed by powerful institutions. Appendix M

After the declassified summary of the Torture Report was made public, Senators John McCain and Dianne Feinstein led a bipartisan coalition of Senators to pass a law mandating that all CIA interrogations adhere to the guidelines in the Army Field Manual on Human Intelligence Collector Operations. The same law also provides the International Committee of the Red Cross access to all detainees. While not perfect these standards have prevented the CIA from resuming its torture program.

Leahy Law

NRCAT also works to encourage the U.S. to use its power to encourage other countries to end their use of torture. One means of achieving this is through the Leahy Law.
