I killed a man last week.

So did you.

At 10:43 a.m. Wednesday at the state penitentiary near Lucasville, Ronald Phillips, 43, was pronounced dead after an agent of the state injected him with a fatal drug cocktail containing the sedative midazolam, the paralytic drug rocuronium bromide, and the heart-stopping drug potassium chloride.

The state did this in your name and paid for it with money it took from you.
