Public Facing Advocacy Writing

Film skirts truth in portrayal of CIA torture by Don Smith, The Tennessean, March 2, 2013.

And it is this vulnerability to deception that is decisive in accounting for evil. Loyal Rue, writer and philosopher, By the Grace of Guile

We are all vulnerable to deception; we all hate to be deceived unless, of course, we are colluding in the deception.

The current blockbuster film Zero Dark Thirty takes advantage, it seems to me, of our vulnerability in order to deceive us about the value of torture to produce reliable intelligence generally and, specifically, in the search for Osama bin Laden...
